Report on the work of the DAWA organization

All praise and thanks belong to Allah alone, we thank him, and we ask him for help and forgiveness. And whomsoever Allah guides, for him there will be no misleader, and whom Allah sends astray, for him there will be no guide. And I bear witness that there is no deity worthy to be worshipped but Allah, to whom there is no companion and I bear witness the Muhammad is His servant and messenger.

With the fall of the socialist system in Bosnia, the yoke posed on the Bosnian Muslims fell. That yoke was reflected in the isolation of Muslims from public life, which lasted for fifty years. Namely, during the communist system, Muslims lived in a very subordinate position and could not progress politically or economically, and their religious life was limited to prayers in the mosque.

there were individuals who did their religious activities secretly and with prescribed words. Two years before the outset of the war, these individuals formed an illegal group for dawa and jihad; which grows during the war into the main bearer of war actions and at the same time the caller of other people.

1. Raising a Muslim individual
2. Raising a Muslim family
3. Raising a Muslim society
4. The struggle for Islam throughout the world.

The organization is organized so that it consists of fifteen groups (džemati). The organization also has its own Shura who represents the organization. The path and work of the organization is very difficult and arduous, but with the help of Allah and the help of certain Arab brothers, it achieved very good results.

It has increased the number of supporters.

A large number of Muslim women wear hijabs and more than a few wear niqabs. With the help of the Arab brothers (sheikhs from Saudi Arabia), various religious courses (on purity, namaz, aqeedah, tawhid, the Qur'an and other Islamic topics) were conducted on the pure foundations of the Qur'an and the Sunnah.

The greatest contribution, among others, were made by Sheikh Abu Abdullah Mazin and Sheikh Ibrahim, who gave all their efforts and work and contributed with the help of Allah to build already pure individuals and a larger number of pure Islamic families who, God willing, will be the bearers of Islam in the Balkans.

We ask all those who, with the help and permission of Allah, can help us by contributing to the strengthening of our organization in staff education and material assistance, to jointly carry out the task given to us by Allah as to sow and spread Islam in the Balkans and wider.

May Allah reward all those who have contributed with Paradise!
